

Enrich

Financial Resources for Employees

Are you ready to improve your financial wellness?

Bronson is offering financial resources for employees through Enrich. By answering a few quick questions, you'll get articles, videos, tools and a financial advisor to help you achieve your goals.

This isn't a cookie cutter program where everyone sees the same information. Based on your answers, you'll receive information that matters to you:

- Understanding your paycheck: Get the full scoop
- Preparing for tax season: What do you need to keep and consider for a smooth experience
- Credit scores: How they work and why they matter
- Identity theft and scams: How to protect yourself
- Repaying your student loans: How to repay effectively and successfully
- Credit cards: How to manage your cards properly
- Managing your debt: Learn to reduce and eliminate your debt
- Insurance: Learn about the different aspects and types
- Buying a car: Evaluate your needs and get ready for the dealership
- Buying your first home: Find out if you're ready and how much you can afford
- Investing: Discover all aspects of investing for your future

Take the Financial Wellness Checkup

To get started, sign up and take the Financial Wellness Checkup to personalize your experience. It only takes 5 minutes!

You are able to access the site from within the intranet and may also access it directly at Enrich: Financial Literacy and Career Resources

The entire platform is built with responsive design meaning it will automatically adjust to work great on whatever device and screen size you are using whether it is a computer, tablet or phone.

Questions?

If you need any assistance, the team at Enrich can help. As you explore the site you can click on the chat icon in the lower right corner for support.

You can also contact the Human Resources team:

Open a ticket in Workday

Email HRHelp@bronsonhg.org

Call (269) 341-6310