

Parents:

The internet can offer information about community services and programs in your area. We want to offer you a few trusted internet sites that cover all of Michigan.

Internet Site	What it Offers
The AAP Parenting Website: https://healthychildren.org/	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • News • Symptom Checker • Ask the Pediatrician • Immunization Schedules • Apps for families • Newsletters
ARC Community Advocates https://communityadvocates.org/	For people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meetings • Events • Resources
Bridges 4 Kids: https://www.bridges4kids.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • News • Find Help in Michigan and by county • Find Help in USA • Help4Parents • Disability Information • Homeschooling/Homework Help • Bullying

Disability Network (http://www.dnswm.org/)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Advocacy and Education ○ Information and Referral ○ Independent Living ○ Transition ○ Peer Support • Resources <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Agency Publications ○ Information • Connect
Michigan Alliance for Families: www.michiganallianceforfamilies.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special Education Resources • Disability Information • Babies & Toddlers • Webinars • Upcoming Events
Michigan Department of Health and Human Services: www.michigan.gov/mdhhs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assistance Programs (WIC) • Adult & Children's Services • Safety & Injury Prevention • Hearing loss – type “hearing” in the search box, click on early hearing detection and intervention
Ask Family Services (https://www.askforkids.org/)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family and Youth Empowerment • Family Care Coordination • Events and Trainings

If you use social media sites, please discuss information, advice or “medical ideas” with your child’s medical team, as some information may not be correct.